

Peter DJ . PRODUCER . Lentini

Peter Lentini is the founder and creative director at Ankara Festivals and Naija Entertainment. Both of which have become household names in the city of Los Angeles. Relocating to California from Nigeria in 2000, Peter started Naija Entertainment Organization to create an avenue to foster unity among Nigerians in the Bay Area and Southern California through social events.

The DJ

Known for having his ear to the ground for the hottest African music artists, Peter produces the 405 Talk mix and currently is a resident DJ at West End in Santa Monica, CA most popular for his Afrobeat Fridays. His shows also include performances by headlining artists known worldwide including Dauido, Yemi Alade and Timaya.

The Producer

Here he re-launched his entertainment company and went on to birth Ankara Festival Los Angeles (AFLA), an organization that showcases the African culture through fashion, music, arts and food. The aim of Ankara Festival Los Angeles is to create a social landscape for cultural pride in North America.

He has since then gone on to organize and promote several events such as The Nigerian Reunion (NRC), CSUN Africa Week, Mocolatee Fashion Show, African Focus Premier dance competition in Los Angeles and the list goes on.

He is constantly getting inspired by the works and creativity in others and has fast become an inspiration in his community.

Available for :

- DJ Services
- Concerts
- Tours
- Television Appearances
- Speaking Engagements

Managed by Studio Ink. Agency

Click here for bookings
or go to peterlentini.com

PETERLENTINI.COM